

THE CENTRAL RECORD

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 10 1908.

NUMBER 11

EIGHTEENTH YEAR.

Personal Recollections of a Dollar

I am a dollar. A little age worn, maybe, but still in circulation. I am proud of myself for being in circulation. I am no tomato can dollar—not I.

This town is only my adopted home, but I like it and hope to remain permanently. When I came out of the mint I was adopted into a town like this in another state. But after a time I was sent off to a big city, many miles away. I turned up in a Mail Order house. For several years I stayed in that city. Millionaires bought cigars with me. I didn't like that, for I believe in the plain people.

Finally a traveling man brought me to this town and left me here. I was so glad to get back to a smaller town that I determined to make desperate efforts to stay.

One day a citizen of this town was about to send me back to that big city. I caught him looking over a Mail Order Catalogue. Suddenly I found my voice and said to him—he was a dentist, by the way:

"Now, look here, doc. If you'll only let me stay in this town I'll circulate around and do you lots of good. You buy a big beefsteak with me, and the butcher will buy groceries, and the grocer will buy dry goods, and the dry goods merchant will pay his doctor's bill with me, and the doctor will spend me with a farmer for oats to feed his buggy horse, and the farmer will buy some fresh beef from the butcher, and the butcher will come around to you and get his tooth mended. In the long run, as you see, I'll be more useful to you here at home than if you'd send me away forever."

Doc said it was a mighty stiff argument. He hadn't looked at it in that light before. So he went and bought the big beefsteak, and I began to circulate around home again.

Now, just suppose all the other dollars that are sent to Chicago or some other big city were kept circulating right here at home. You could see this town grow.

HONEST, NOW—AIN'T I RIGHT?

Now's The Best Time to get genuine, honest bargains in Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Shoes, Etc., as when the old, established business houses put on especially low prices to clear out winter stock. You know this is never done until after the Holidays—that is by those who mean business. Call on us and see.

This is Time of Year

Joseph Mercantile COMPANY.

Incorporated.

We must realize money on all accounts and you will do us a favor by settling now.

Local Items.

Magie, music, illusions, imitations and ventriloquism at the court house next Monday night, 13th, one of the most wonderful attractions on the road. Go and help a good cause, be side getting more than value received.

Killing at Flat Woods.

Speed Nichols was killed near Flat Woods Thursday night by John Mason, also a resident of that section. Mason came to town and was released on bond until next term of circuit court. We understand an old quarrel was cause of the fatal trouble.

Masonic Election.

At the annual election of officers of Lancaster Masonic Lodge, the following were chosen: J M Rothwell, W M, H V Bastin, S W, L L Walker, J W, J W Sweeney, Treas, Louis Landrum, Secty, A T Anderson, Tyler. The deacons have not been appointed.

The Dairy Opens.

The Creamery, which closed temporarily, began business again on first of the year, and has been even more successful than when in operation before. The farmers and other owners of cows have realized the great blessing the Creamery is to them, consequently are much more interested. There is no doubt of the permanency of the institution now, we are glad to say.

Pollard

After a lingering illness, Mrs George Pollard died at her residence, on Danville street, Saturday. The deceased was the widow of the late George Pollard, who was killed by Will Hummer, Pollard filling the position of deputy city marshal. The remains were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery Sunday afternoon. She leaves six children.

Much Interest and Much Good.

The above headline tells the result of the protracted meeting which is being conducted by Rev E E Dawson, of Mt Sterling, assisted by the pastor, Rev J H Williams. The attendance has increased at each service, and at present the house is crowded with members of all denominations. Every body is cordially invited and given a hearty reception. Mr Dawson is a fine speaker, and his sermons show the result of hard study and a bright mind. Several additions have been made to the membership, while every one who has attended has been uplifted and benefited. Services are held at 2:30 and 7:15 p. m. The meeting will close Sunday night.

Just a Little Horse Sense.

The above headline tells just what merchants need. When a farmer sells his hay, lard, tobacco, hemp, or any thing else, he demands his money. Some won't even take a check, but demand the real cash. When a man goes into a bank to borrow money, the banker asks, "Who is going your security?" Before a money lender lets his money out, he makes arrangements for a mortgage, then has a fellow's deed examined to make sure the loan, but "through the lack of horse sense," as said above, the merchants throughout the land have indulged the public until people have come to believe the merchant ought to go and borrow money, mortgage his property and let goods out to be paid for "when they get in just the right shape." The merchant's notes come due, his bills fall due, the city merchants make a draft and threaten to sue him, he sends state ments to his debtors—but all in vain. Some few finally pay, others say "next week," but next week never comes. Now, Mr Farmer, reason the case with yourself—don't we deserve the same security as we have to put up to furnish goods for the people? Apply the Golden Rule, "Do unto Others as You Would be Done By," and when we are thus secured, goods don't go without the cash or it's equivalent. Bourne Merchant.

New Council Goes In.

The board of City Councilmen, elected in November, took formal charge of Lancaster's affairs Monday night. All were sworn in except Mr Alex Walker, who could not qualify by reason of his holding a contract with the town to furnish lights. Mayor Hugh T Logan makes an ideal presiding officer, while the councilmen took hold of the reins of government like they meant business. Luther Herron was made chief of police, tax collector and superintendent of the water works, all at a salary of $1,000 a year. L L Walker was made city attorney, W B Mason, clerk, D A Thomas, treasurer, C D Walker treasurer for sinking fund. No assessor was appointed. Capt Herron said he would make no appointment as deputy, as he was satisfied he could do all the work, with the tiger element under the good control it has been placed. The new board is composed of the following members: W B Burton, Jas Hill, J R Mount, Jas Smith and Banks Hudson, and that these gentlemen will give the city a good administration is a foregone conclusion. The salary of Mr Herron is made up as follows: $50 per month as marshal, $10 per month in lieu of commission on taxes collected and fees for arrests, $23.33 as superintendent of the water works, making a total of $1,000 a year. Services for all these places he performs without assistance, except a deputy on court day and other public days.

Money for jurors is ready for payment. F S Hughes.

The Ladies Aid Society will not have their regular meeting this week on account of the Christian Endeavor which will be held at the Christian church, Saturday, Jan 11th.

The new hotel is about completed and preparations are being made to move in. We hope to get a half-tone of the handsome building by next issue of The Record, at which a detailed description will be given.

Examinations.

The examination for graduates from the public schools will be held at the office of the County Superintendent's on Friday and Saturday, Jan 24 and 25th.

Bob Hughes President.

Our former townsman, R E Hughes, has again been shown that his efforts and capabilities as a business man are appreciated by being elected president of the Kentucky Electric Co, one of prominent institutions of Louisville. The Record extends most hearty congratulations to its good friend.

To Party-line Subscribers.

When ringing for central never engage in a conversation with a party that should happen to be listening, for when central comes in on the line, she thinks that you were calling him and therefore goes on about answering other calls, thus you are delayed. This rule should, at least, be observed at night, for when the operator is asleep he cannot distinguish the ring.

McMillan.

Mrs Francis McMillan, mother of Tom, Frank, Ed and Sam McMillan, died at her home near Hubbs last Saturday and was buried in the Lancaster Cemetery Sunday. She was a member of the Hubbs Christian church and a woman who was highly thought of by all who knew her. She will be greatly missed by many people who have been the recipients of her kindness and thoughtfulness.

Real Estate Sales.

Rue & Curry, of Harrodsburg, sold on Jan 1, 1908, for Clell Coleman, his house and lot to Chas W Robinson for $2,700, cash. On Jan 2, for Nettie Watkins, her house and lot to Mr Denry for $950, cash. On Jan 3, for Miss Irene Moore, her farm of 192 acres, near Burgin, to Wood Hatchett, of Mackville, for $9,000, cash. Possession. Mr Hatchett has moved to Harrodsburg and will make that place his future home.

Correction.

M D Hughes tells us to please correct the statement in last issue, that he had not purchased the property to which he moved on Water Street, as he is not able to buy it and does not desire to do so. He further says that the statements that he brings his lunch to the office and that he will not come up town at night, will not be believed when the public considers the fact that the statements were made by W I Williams and J R Mount.

Business Change.

The firm of Mount & Elkin has, by mutual consent, been dissolved, Mr Elkin retiring, and the new firm of J R Mount & Co, purchasing the stock and good will firm. The new firm will continue to run a hardware business up to date in every particular. The present stand has been used as a hardware store for many years, and is one of the best in town. The new firm starts into the business under most favorable conditions, and will put forth every effort to give the people the very best goods at most reasonable prices.

Change of Police Judges.

Police Judge D W C Armstrong, who tendered his resignation some time since, went out of office Monday night. Judge Armstrong has given a good administration, evil doors fearing him and knowing they must obey the law. He had much to do with stamping out blind tigers, as he did what he believed to be right and did not listen to dictation from anyone. He is a good citizen, and we trust he will remain in Lancaster. Gov Willson has appointed Mr E W Harris to fill vacancy until next election, and the appointment is one which will meet with the approval of all lovers of law and order.

A Worthy Tribute.

As a token of honor and esteem, the W C T U of this place has presented a clock to the retiring marshal, Mr J A Beazley. When Mr Beazley accepted a public trust he shouldered heavy responsibilities. How well he has acquitted himself, and how nobly he has discharged his duties makes one bright page in Lancaster's history. He has earned the respect, and esteem of the good people of the community. It seems fitting that we pay just tribute to the splendid work done by the Council, by Judge Armstrong who served without fear, or favor, the Mayor, Mr Duncan who is for right always. So by their co-operation our town is quiet, peaceful, and orderly, governed as a town should be. Mr Beazley has brought honor to this office. The good he has accomplished will live long in the memory and hearts of the people. The W C T U.

Lost.

Pair gold eye glasses, between Stanford and Lancaster on last Thursday. Reward for return to Central Record office.

Prof Lippard is pleased with the opening of the Lancaster Business College and the excellent quality of students entering. There are many other young people who should enter at once and prepare for good positions. Parents can do better than to give their sons and daughters a thorough business education, it helps them to larger success and is better than to give them money. Now the opportunity is at your door and saves board and traveling expenses. See Prof Lippard.

Lost Dogs.

Two black and tan dogs, one wearing E H Walker's collar and one with that of T C Lear, of Brodhead. Also two spotted bitches, one wearing collar of E H Walker and one with collar of Woods Walker. They disappeared Jan 2 in cedars at Gooch place. I will not only be thankful for information, but will come after the dogs and pay liberal reward. Woods Walker, Paint Lick, Ky. Phone 152X.

A Progressive Man.

J R Mount, who bought the interest of R L Elkin in the firm of Mount & Elkin, has located permanently with us, and has proved himself a progressive, substantial business man. By fair and honest dealing he has gained the confidence of the people. He is in favor of every public enterprise and is always ready to do his part in promoting the general welfare. We hope that others, like him and his excellent family, will locate with us.

The Best of the Season.

The W C T U will give another attraction next Monday night, the 13th, at 8 o'clock, at the Court house, when Durno, the mysterious, will appear waving his wand causing birds to appear in mid air, flowers to be seen growing, a bowl of water produced from a handkerchief, and many other feats of magic which always astound the audience. His mirth-provoking feats of ventriloquism are unsurpassed. Over 150 tickets have been sold. Children 25c, general admission, 35c, reserved seats 50c, at McRoberts' Drug Store.

Folger.

In memory of Halle Folger. A few weeks since this bright young girl was called home. Had she lived until March 25, she would have been fifteen years old. She confessed her faith in Christ last August. She was a lovely obedient child, the pet of the household. The only daughter and idolized by her parents. At school she received the highest marks and was loved and revered by pupils and teacher. This gentle spirit was too pure for earth, hence God transplanted her in His own flower garden. A friend.

They Are Invincible.

Everyone who had the pleasure of hearing Saxton & Trost's orchestra at the dance last week was simply carried away with the excellent music played by this incomparable band. We have contended all along that their music is the very best to be had, and if anyone thinking otherwise had heard them last week, no other band would ever make a note in Lancaster. The complete band consists of seven men—the requisite number to fill in all "gaps," and nothing extra should be expected of a smaller number. The writer has known Henry Saxton since we were both in our swaddling clothes, so to speak, and the warm friendship existing between the two has not in the least waned in all these years.

GARRARD C. E. UNION.

Lancaster, Saturday, January 11th.

10:00 a. m. Song Service. Devotional.
10:25 Welcome Address.
10:30 Response..... Miss Georgia Dunn
10:35 Song.
10:40 The Real Mission of Christian Endeavor..... Mrs F P Frisbie
10:50 Our Work for Christ in the Heart; in the World..... Miss Addie Arnold
10:55 The Savior at the Door..... Miss Nannie Rogers
11:00 Music.
11:05 Round table—Reviving the Work..... led by Eld F M Tinder
(a) How to Secure New Members..... Miss Bettie Royston
(b) How to Improve the Prayer Meeting..... Lancaster C E
(c) How to Win and Hold the Young People..... Miss Carrie Arnold
(d) How to Deepen the Devotional Life of Young People..... Buena Vista C E
11:55 Solo..... Miss Lillian Leavell
Announcements.

AFTERNOON.

1:00 Song Service. Devotional.
1:05 Youth—It's Place in our Conquest for Christ..... H M Stansifer
1:25 Song.
1:30 C E A Spiritual Power.....
1:50 C E A Missionary Power..... J L Yandel
2:15 Song.
2:20 A Great Opportunity..... Hon W I Williams
2:40 Song..... Miss Lillian Leavell
2:45 Why I am a Christian Endeavorer—Mizpah.

Notice.

There will be a regular meeting of the stock-holders of The Garrard Bank & Trust Co, held at its place of business on the 14th day of January, 1908, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.
J. W. ELMORE, Cashier.

YOUR account is now past due and we must have the MONEY

without delay. This means all who owe us. Now lets see who will be the first to call and SETTLE.

HASELDEN BROS.

Found, fur neck-piece. Owner can have same by applying to this office and paying for ad.

J D Gulley has completed all his accommodations and now has the Mason Hotel in fine shape. His patrons are delighted with the fare.

Mr Chas Bierlein and Miss Sallie Rothwell were married at the residence of Capt Thos Austin Tuesday afternoon. The bride is a niece of S D Rothwell, and the groom, who has been employed in Zimmer's restaurant for several years, one of the cleverest and most popular men in town. The Record wishes them many years of happiness.

John Francis Dangerously Ill. Lancaster relatives received a telegram Tuesday afternoon stating that John Francis was dangerously ill in Parkersburg, W. Va. Mrs Price and another sister residing in Richmond, left Wednesday morning for his bedside. As he is suffering from appendicitis. As we go to press nothing further has been heard from him.

NEW UNITED STATES LAW

A ruling by the Post Office Department, at Washington, has just been made, which will work a great hardship on newspaper publishers and subscribers alike. It denies publishers the privilege of sending their papers through the mails after any subscriber's time has expired. In other words if your subscription expired with this issue of The Record and we should mail you a copy next week, both you and the editor of The Record are subject to fine. It is an outrageous law and should be set aside. If we want to send our paper to anyone, it's our business and no one has any say so, it seems to us, but Uncle Sam says not so. It means that publishers must go over their hundreds of names each week—a task requiring the best part of a day. There's but one thing to do, and that is for you and The Record to keep posted as to how we stand. Some people may think this is written as a bluff, but if you are of this opinion, ask your post master.

- Business Items -

See our stores. Haselden Bros. tf
Hand made harness at extra low prices. Haselden Bros.
Now is the time to get a buggy cheap. W J Romans.
Office for rent. Apply to Mrs Emma P Grant, Danville street.
Want 100 veal calves. Will pay high est market price. H C Hamilton.
In beginning a new year start in the right direction by trading with W H Ward. 2t
Your School Taxes.
For the year 1907, is past due. Please call at once and settle as the school needs the money. Those in arrears for the year 1908 will save cost by paying at once. E W Harris, Treas.
8 16 tf
Notice of Dissolution.
I hereby give notice that the firm of Cook & Leavell, doing business in Lancaster, Ky, was on Oct. 1st, 1907, dissolved by mutual consent.
V. S. Leavell.

Silver knives, forks and spoons. Haselden Bros. tf
Enter the Lancaster Business College at once, it's the road to largest success. See Prof Lippard. 2t

The largest line of winter buggy robes ever shown in Lancaster, they are cheap. W J Romans.

For Sale. Undecorated china cups and saucers. Reason for selling too large for my use. Miss Sallie Elkin.

Velocipedes and tool chests. Haselden Bros. tf
Butter, butter milk, fresh sweet milk, skin milk and sweet cream for sale at the Creamery. Telephone 142.

Our stock is more complete than ever this year, and we will appreciate a share of your patronage. W H Ward. 2t

The Business College will be worth much to the young people of this region. Every one possible should enter and prepare for good positions. 2t

This day the firm of Northcott & Hagan have dissolved partnership. R L Hagan retiring. Lancaster, Ky, Jan. 8, 1908. 2t

We shall endeavor to please you both in price and quality. If our goods come up right, tell your friends about them. If not tell us. W H Ward.

I am agt for the famous plaster Sackett board. Good as ceiling or plaster, cheaper than either. H C Hamilton. tf

Prof Lippard wants ambitious students to enter the Business College. Don't miss it. 4t

Of course you know Ward pays more for eggs than any one. It means money in your pocket to take them there. 2t

We are in a position to save you money on all kinds of building material, especially on doors windows and furnishing material. Hamilton & Magee. tf

Having decided to reduce my business to groceries and tinware, I will for the next sixty days sell best prints 64c, shoes, clothing and notions at cost, queensware at less than city prices. C D Powell. 1 10 tf Embroidery. While your "hand is in," begin your work for Spring. I call attention to my stamping, and will appreciate your order. Martha A Kendrick, opposite Caldwell College, Danville.

Buggy and wagon harness are going at great bargains. W J Romans.

Dr Roseberry, Osteopath. Office at G M Patterson's residence, Richmond street. Will be here Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays of each week. Consultation and examination free. All diseases and ailments treated. 11 25 tf

For Sale.] Lancaster Greenhouse for two hundred dollars if taken at once, need not be a fire, can sell all the vegetable plants one can raise. Satisfactory reason given for selling. Call and investigate. John Christman, Prop.

The Louisville Post. I have taken the agency for the Louisville Post, and will deliver the papers at your door every night WITHOUT FAIL. If you give me your order, your paper will be delivered and you will not be disappointed. Ring me up at the Central Record office (43) and I will come and give you prices. Louis Ball.

W. H. Herndon. Ben D. Herndon. HERNDON & HERNDON. Attorneys at Law. Lancaster, Kentucky. Office over Burman Drug store.